

Gardening for Wildlife

Saturday 20th April 2.30 - 4pm
in Standish Village Hall

- Come and hear a talk by Chloe Cox of Wild Stroud that will help us all develop gardens that encourage and support wildlife.
- Find out how we can prepare our gardens for changes in the climate.
- Learn how to make a hoverfly lagoon!
- Hear from the Hedgehog Rescue Centre about how we can support hedgehogs.
- Enjoy tasty refreshments.
- Meet other local residents.

There will be free wildflower seeds and some simple, fun activities for young gardeners!

This event will be funded by Standish Parish Council as part of its Climate Change and Biodiversity policy.

There will be collections for Wild Stroud garden projects and the Hedgehog Rescue Centre if you would like to donate.
